Re: Jabbari v. Wells Fargo
Case No. 15-cv-02159 (N.D. Cal.)

Dear Clerk:

My name is Paul Squicciarini. We appear on behalf of ourselves and all others similarly situated.

My wife and I have banked with Wells Fargo for several years. We believe we are members of the Class as defined in the Legal Notice in this case. We submitted a claim on the settlement website on February 3, 2018. We are currently unsure of the unauthorized accounts and/or the account number(s) or the protection services. We are not now represented by an attorney but will, most likely, be obtaining counsel soon. We will let you know who it is when we do so. We are not planning on attending the fairness hearing.

We object to the settlement as it presently stands. Our reasons are:

1. The settlement amount is too small. If a jury awarded the class the maximum of $1,000 per account as set forth in the statute, that would be a $600 million award. Also more could be awarded if credit reports were willfully misused in opening accounts. Punitive damages might be awarded and that sum could be significant.

2. There is not enough information that adequately describes the settlement.
3. Plaintiffs and Defendants have not conducted any formal discovery in this matter by their own admission. "We can't know what we don't know". We should be allowed to look at wells Fargo's information to determine if this settlement is fair and reasonable.
4. The attorney fees are not fully documented so that we can review the detail of the attorney's work.
5. The attorney fees are too high given (a).the willingness of Wells Fargo to make amends for their actions; (b). The-self-policing done by Wells Fargo; (c). the threat of Government (CFPB and OCC) intervention; and (d). the constant oversight provided by Honorable Judge Chhabria.
6. The settlement needs to provide a more comprehensive notice procedure.
7. The Release is vague and overly broad.

If the Court requires us to make a motion to intervene we hereby assert this objection should serve as such a motion.

We thank you for your attention to this matter.

Very truly yours.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Squicciarini
